A THOMA BROWNE, A. M.

En tibi, Lector, VIRIDARIUM, quo nihil jucundius indagari, nihil amœnius inveniri poterit; locus est genialis, totus, ac plenus deliciarum; virescentibus herbis vestitus, odoriferis floribus ornatus; pellucidis fontibus irriguus; felicissimis arboribus consitus; opacis nemoribus coronatus.

REVERENDO

GEORGIO HEATH, D. D.

REGIÆ SCHOLÆ ETONENSIS,

ARCHIDIDASCALO.

DOMINE,

POST multa a te beneficia mihi collata, per tempus quo Tutoris privati apud Regiam Scholam Etonensem munereungebar, et post patrocinium huic opusculo benignè promissum, quodocunque a typis prolatum esset, crimen ingrati animi verè mihi attribui debet, si non quodammodo testificationem in me officiorum nunc exprimerem. Ergo, Reverende Domine, VIRIDARIUM POETICUM, (parvum grati animi cultusque mei symbolum) sed solum quod pènes me est, accipe. Studiosè ex Poetico Thesauo depromptum est, et si alumnis sub ferulâ tuâ degentibus quid commodi in Artis Poeticæ praxi conferat, suscipiendi causa (ut spero) comprobabitur, et Editor optato potitus fuerit.

Diu, Reverende Domine, vivas, et functus officio curâ et solitudine tam pleno, præmia digna denique assequaris; et cùm in otia blanda recedas, maximâ delectatione juvenes doctis præceptis tuis imbutos, in variis rei publicæ muneribus illustres et probos viros contempleris.

Cum summâ observantiâ et obedientiâ,

THOMAS BROWNE.

PRÆFATIO.

SI Tyro quid ipsa Poesis sit diligenter intueatur, inveniet esse rem quandam divinam quæ diversas artes liberales complectitur, certis quibusdam numeris adstricta, certis quibusdam pedibus progrediens, variisque floribus distincta, quæcunque homines egerint, quæcunque norint, quæcunque contemplati fuerint, ea miris luminibus exornet atque in alias quasdam species traducat. Apud veteres Vates appellati sunt DIVINI et SACRI MUsARUM SACERDOTES, quoniam ab his solum divinitus concessum est, ut, carmine modò jucundè suaviterque labenti, interdum graviter altèque surgenti; etiam vehementi impetu ruenti; atque in placidi amnis morem fluenti; nonnunquam copiose exundanti; nonnunquam breviter atque compressè progredienti; quocunque velint auditorem raptant. Inde constat quod Græci ipsos poetas dixerunt, eò quòd apud illos ποιησθαι facere significat. Sed fortasse objiciatur; nonnè Plato, in Jove, affirmavit, poesin non arte humanâ tradi, sed furore divino mentes nostras irrepere, et in libro de Legibus rejiciendam? Inde fortasse deduci potest artem poeticam non omnino excolendam, ut; “ Poeta nascitur, non fit; sed Platonis sententia non eatenus tendit. Eam poesis speciem solummodo rejiciendam admonuit, quæ more tragico perturbatos animos imitatur. Quæ vero laudes deorum canit, patriæ instituta moresque edocet, probos viros extollit, improbos deprimit, accipiendam jubet. Quoniam igitur poesis studium, intra has metas constrictum, ab hoc celeberrimo viro commendatur, tunc quærere licet; quid ad versus ritè componendos præcipuè confert? Sic Tyroni subjiciatur. Epitheta, judicio selecta, et quorum venustas in compositione, seu poeticâ, seu prosaicâ, magnopore percellit, non parum ad exornandum carmen invenientur, nam stilus politus tantum iis debet ac coloribus vivificans pictoris penicillum. Ergo elaboratum opus epithetorum Johannis Ravissii Textoris, nunc quasi penitus ignotum, rursus, sed novâ formâ editum, in lucem profero.

Sed in Epithetorum usu* natura rerum quibus aptantur benè exprimenda est, et judicio sagaci selectio præ-

* Observationes de epithetis ex opere Benjamine Hederico scripto collectæ in usum Juvenis Artis Poeticæ studiosi hic imprimuntur.

1. Epithetum non adhibendum otiosum, sed singularem sensum et vim habens, ut;

præcipuè innititur, quò in titulorum applicatione, maxime idoneos, prout res postulat, discernere possumus. Peritia perfecta

—contingere gaudet habenas
Gaudet et invito grates agit inde parenti.

OVID.

2. Epithetum redditur aliquando acutum adludendo comparatione ad ea, quæ cuique insunt, ut;

Tu levis es, multoque tuis ventosior alis.

ID.

3. Loco Epitheti inseritur, quasi Parenthesis, potissimum per relativum qui, quæ, quod, aliquid ex re natum, ut;

Si modo, quem præfers, non simulatur amor.

ID.

4. Loco epitheti frequenter usurpatur participium, ut;

—cernes urbem et promissa Latini—Mœnia.

5. Epitheti loco adhibentur duo substantiva Synonyma, i. e. ejusdem significationis, vel pæne Synonyma, ut;

—ut vidit vultum morientis et ora.

ID.

6. Epithetorum vices etiam subeunt Patronymica et nominum priorum circumlocutiones;

Saturnius, i. e. Jupiter; Cyllenius, Mercurius.

7. Pro epithetis etiam adhibentur apposita, sive substantiva continuata, ut;

Proles Semeleia, Liber.

perfecta accidentum, qualitatum, et affectuum cujuscunque rei æque in illis selegendis desideratur. Maximè profunt cùm usui sunt. Character, nota et nomen cujuscunque ab Epithetis delineanda sunt, et merita causæ singulæ quoque decernenda; necesse est etiam ut poësis studiosus magna concinnitate in applicatione utatur. Nam magni refert, propria nomina rebus tribuere. Satyræ aculei, et querelæ modi inde pendent, aliter de leone asellum reddimus, in Satyrâ

8. Venusti interdum Epithetorum loco inseruntur Parentheses, vel quasi Parentheses.

9. Epithetorum etiam locum obeunt Pariphrases, ut;

O Diva, gratum quæ regis Antium, i. e. Fortuna.

10. Epitheta eleganter personis detrahuntur et rebus tribuuntur, seu ab animatis ad inanimata transferuntur, ut;

Heu fuge crudeles terras, fuge littus avarum.

11. Epitheta nonnunquam detrahuntur personis et tribuuntur earum effectibus, ut;

virum laudamus et in laude maledicimus. Ergo patet, concinnitatem et proprietatem Epithetorum præcipuè in eorum vi constare.

Et hîc, præter propositum, Juvenis admonendus est, multos carmen decipisse, nam ut quisque versum pedibus instruxit, sensumque teneriorem verborum ambitu intexit, putavit se continuò in Heliconem venisse. Ceterùm neque generosior spiritus vanitatem amat, neque concipere, aut edere partum mens potest, nisi ingenti flumine literarum inundata. Effugiendum ab omni verborum vilitate, et sumendæ voces a plebe semotæ. Nec Poësim solummodo Epitheta exornant. Magnus est eorum usus in eloquentia, nec dici fere potest, quantum inde orationi accedant splendoris et ornamenti. Non tamen sint otiosa illa et duriora, sed ex intimâ rei ratione et naturâ depromantur. Secus enim si fit, contaminatur oratio, et tumoris plena pulchritudinem mentitur, non habet. Ut flores pratum, et rosæ seminarium, sic Epitheta, ritè adaptata, linguam exornant; sine his lingua languida et jejuna, fieret sine illis natura marcescere videretur. Juveni quoque in compositione curandum est, ne sententiæ emineant extra corpus rationis expressæ, sed intectis vestibus colore niteant.

Qui ergo Parnassi flores carpere velit, et elegans elaboratumque carmen Latinum scribere desideret, familiares sibi faciat Æneidos libros, Horatii odas, Propertii et Ovidii elegias, Heroínas Epistolas et Martialis selectiora epigrammata. Lectio diligens Lucretii etiam suadenda est.

Quoad operis nunc prolati digestionem, necesse est ut Tyro nunc certior fiat, discrepare ab Textoris opere in eo quod Sententiæ ex diversis Scriptoribus illi ad epitheta illustranda citatis, non ordine, quo in Viridario Poetico ponuntur. Exempla ex veteribus et recentioribus Poetis Textor sine discrimine confundit, dum hîc omnes Ævi Augustini scriptores, inveniri possunt, quasi primam aciem, ut selectione Epithetorum Tyro meliùs dirigatur, formantes; dum cæteri usque ad Juvenalem, dictum ultimum Romanorum poetarum proprio ordine sequuntur. Claudianus citatus est, quoniam is solus ex recentioribus dignitatem Musæ Latinæ vindicare videbatur, Boethio, Sedulio et nonnullis aliis exceptis. Epitheta cognominata RECENTIORA ex sæculorum mediorum scriptoribus, excerpta sunt. Hinc juveni patet sibi licere quandocunque velit in Epithetis selegendis fructum quasi ex paleâ sejungere, commodum quod Gradus ad Parnassum illi minimè præbet. Exempla ex Culice et aliis operibus dubiè Virgilio gilio autori assignatis juveni oblata sunt, quæ, ut Textor ipse eruditissimus recognovit, ego non omisi.

Paucis hucusque dictis de poësis laude, et Epithetorum usu, (sed non pro dignitate,) et de operis digestionem, nunc, alumni Etonenses, qui in gremio Musarum jampridem fuistis, et quorum Archididascali sub patrocínio Viridarium Poeticum, ex Musarum Thesauro promptum, primò susceptum est, precor vos ut idem benignè accipiatis. Si opus, quæcunque sit, quodammodo vobis ad Heliconem compendium fieret, tunc voti compos Editor fuerit.
